Skeeter Adds Three Anglers Pro Staff

KILGORE, Texas, February 4, 2008 – Skeeter Products, Inc., manufacturer of Skeeter brand boats, is proud to announce the addition of professional angler's Brian Clark, Bobby Lane, and Clark Reehm to Team Skeeter.

"Team Skeeter consists of professional anglers who represent the Skeeter brand both on and off the water," says Daren Cole, Marketing Manager for Skeeter Products, Inc. "We have high expectations from our professional anglers, and we value these individuals for their strong tournament skills, competitiveness, fan base and their ability to support our dealer network," says Cole. "Each is well-respected within the tournament community, and we look forward to sharing their success," says Cole.

Brian Clark, from Haltom City, Texas, joins the team having won the Media Bass Angler of the Year several times, and qualifying for the Bassmaster Weekend Series Championship. Clark has won money in 10 of 13 BASS events. "I've been fishing from a Skeeter for a longtime, and now its great to be a part of their team. Clark will be fishing the Bassmaster Elite Series in 2008.

Bobby Lane, from Lakeland, Florida, has been fishing professionally for three years, and his efforts paid off in 2007, as the angler secured himself an invitation to the 2008 Bassmaster Classic. Lane who has been fishing the FLW Tour, earned a Classic invite by finishing 3rd overall in the Bassmaster Southern Opens. Lane has six top-10 tournament finishes, including a third place finish on the FLW Tour's Potomac River event. Lane prides himself on his flipping and top water skills, but tries to remain versatile in his fishing techniques. Lane will be fishing the Bassmaster Elite Series in 2008.

Clark Reehm, a native of Russellville, Arkansas, was a student at Louisiana Tech only two years ago, and today finds himself as a Bassmaster Elite Series angler and 2008 Bassmaster Classic qualifier. In 2007, Reehm fished the Bassmaster Central Opens, finishing second in the Angler of the Year standings and earning a Classic invite. Reehm, who began fishing competitively at age 12, practiced his power fishing skills on Toledo Bend and Sam Rayburn. In fact, Reehm's grandfather fished he first Beaver Lake event staged by Ray Scott. Reehm will be fishing the Bassmaster Elite Series in 2008.
